

holder were honest, capability and fidelity to the Constitution—but Gen. Harrison's test is, "Did he oppose or did he advocate MY ELECTION?"—And this is just about as near the principles of Jefferson as even the President or his Premier will approach in practice. The hypocrisy of the administration is branded upon them at their first step, in the removal of Mr Morgan from the Collectorship of New York. He was honest, capable, and faithful to the Constitution—he had not used the power of office to influence elections, for he had held no office under the General Government until within a few weeks of his removal—yet he was removed by Gen. Harrison without any reason being assigned for his proscription, and a pine-laying whip put in his place! Again, how is this matter to be decided about office-holders having interfered in elections to influence the opinions of others? Have those who have been persecuted by Gen. Harrison for this reason been notified of the allegations made against them, and allowed to meet their accusers face to face, or in any manner to refute the charges, if they were false, before being removed? No—a man who wants the office occupied by another has only to convince the new administration that he has been an unscrupulous partisan of Gen. Harrison, and to say that the occupant has endeavored to influence the opinions of others against the President or any of his Cabinet, and forthwith the incumbent is removed upon ex parte testimony from an interested witness! This, fellow citizens, is the kind of justice, of democracy, we are to experience under the rule of Harrison, Webster, Clay & Co. But a word more—was not Daniel Webster, while holding the office of U. S. Senator, guilty of partisan interference in popular elections, while traversing the country almost from one extremity to the other, haranguing the people in favor of Gen. Harrison's election, and has not Gen. Harrison rewarded him for this interference? "Yes," the whole nation will respond, and cry out "Shame, shame upon such hypocrisy!"

From the Bay State Democrat.

THE WORK GOES BRAVELY ON.

What if the federalists do belie their former professions! No matter—who ever believed anything they said about removals from office? They have ever preached one thing, and practised another when they had the power. Look at the removals of lamp-lighters in the city of N. York; of horse-drivers in Connecticut; look at the general sweep of all demagogues from office in Maine and other States, by the federalists who have cracked so much about proscription.

And notwithstanding the late assertions of Mr Clay and Gen. Harrison and others, in relation to these matters, if they do not practise very different from what they have preached, we shall be mistaken. In fact, the work of cutting off the heads of their political opponents has already commenced, before their professors to the contrary have scarcely escaped from their lips. Even Light House Keepers are to be sacrificed. We noticed yesterday the removal of Capt. Joseph Dennis from the Light House at Gloucester. We copy the following, showing the removal of another Light House Keeper, from the Baltimore Republican:

ON WITH HIS HEAD:

The following is a copy of the note from the new Secretary of the Treasury, to Mr Shaw, late keeper of the Light House at Lazarro Point:

Treasury Department, 3
13th March, 1841.

Sir:—Your services are longer needed by the Government in keeping the Light House at Lazarro Point. I am respectfully

Your ob't servant,

T. EWING,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. WILLIAM SILVER,
Light House,
Lazarro Point,
Baltimore.

This is quite laconic—much to the Point, and, no doubt, as Mr Ewing thinks, "short and sweet"; but how far it compares with the descriptions of the wily party about "no proscription" the reader will see, when he is informed that Mr Shaw has eleven children—was born and raised in the Neck, not far from the Light House—his father and his whole family were good Patriots and showed it during the last war; and besides these, he has the highest testimonials of the most recent date, and that, too, from High gentlemen, who had the best opportunities to know him. His salary as Light House Keeper, was $250! This is a sample of the course which is to be pursued by the "no party"—"no proscription" administration, by the party which has blustered so loudly and largely against ravages for opinion's sake. Consistency, though not indeed a jewel.

The Royal Princess Born Blind.—It is currently reported, and believed in England that the infant princess, Victoria Adelaide Louisa, was born blind. It is supposed to have originated from the terror of the Queen at the time the maniac, Oxford, shot at her last summer, when she suddenly put her hand over her eyes. This does not surprise us, as it is the opinion of a celebrated Roman Consul, that such things will happen under such circumstances. New Era.

STATE OF VERMONT.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR,
A PROCLAMATION.

For a Christian people—acknowledging the goodness and mercy of their CREATOR—to unite in humbly confessing their unworthiness, and in soliciting a continuance of the blessings of Heaven, is a duty no less fit and rational, than pleasing and acceptable.

In accordance with a custom, respected for its associations, I do hereby appoint FRIENDS, the ninth day of April next, to be observed throughout this State as a day of public FASTING AND PRAYER. And I respectfully invite my fellow-citizens to forego all pursuits inconsistent with the duties of the day, and to unite, in their several places of public worship, in such religious services as shall be suited to the occasion.

We are a favored people—with a climate highly conducive to health—a soil richly repaying the labors of the husbandman—industry and enterprise receiving their due reward—seminaries of learning spreading their healthful influence among communities—moral, social, civil and religious rights and privileges secured by wise and just laws, and above all, enjoying free access to the consolations of the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour, unrestrained and unrestrained by civil power. In remembering these, and other mercies and blessings of our CREATOR and PRESERVER, the mind is drawn from the gift to the Giver. They admonish to a faithful review of the past, to thoughts of our own unworthiness and short comings in the various duties of life, and to contrite and sincere re-pentance for past faults.

Let us invoke the blessing of God upon our country, and pray that her institutions may not suffer, through party animosity or sectional strife, but be preserved from the dangers, many and peculiar, which surround us; that the difficulties, which now seem to threaten the public tranquility, may be equably and honorably adjusted; that He would impart wisdom to our rulers, and a due respect for order, truth, and justice, to the people.

By the immutable laws of an overruling Providence, suffering is the certain penalty of transgression—let us, therefore, beseech God that the people may be turned from sin; that men may be led to see the wrong and tyranny of holding his fellow either in physical or mental bondage; that the rights of the weak may be respected, and of the wrong redressed; and that the impartial and pure principles of the Gospel may become the rule and guide of the whole family of man.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the State, at Shoreham, this eighteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand [t. s.] eight hundred and forty-one, and of the independence of the United States, the sixty-fifth. SILAS H. JENISON.

By the Governor:
Geo. B. Manske, Secretary.

CHASE'S COOKING STOVE.

ADDITIONAL CERTIFICATES.

I have made one of Chase's Cooking Stoves, No. 2, since last October, and have no hesitation in recommending it as being a better Stove in every respect, than any now in use in this vicinity, and at a convenience derived from having two stoves, and the saving of half of material consumed in other Stoves, besides in other respects gives it in my opinion, a superiority to any other Stove with which I am acquainted. JASON DARLING.
Woodstock Vt., Jan. 23, 1841.

This is to certify that I have used Chase's Stove, No. 3, for past four months, and I am willing to hazard the opinion that it is decidedly the best Stove in use. The stove is very clean, and the saving of half of material consumed in other Stoves, besides in other respects gives it in my opinion, a superiority to any other Stove with which I am acquainted. JASON DARLING.
